

I think this is outrageous that you cannot call your friends and family regarding your business. As a self-employed person, I work off of commission to feed my family & I am very excited that I would love to call all my friends & family about it and that's the way it should be with NO RESTRICTIONS!!!